Weather The big yellow thing is out today and looks likely to remain dry and warm at least until the end of the week when a high in the Tasman will begin to push moist easterly air back over the ranges into a trough line over western NSW. A few storms are expected west of the ranges but mid term we see conditions much drier than previous weeks.	Currency 0.8974 CBOT Wheat Move & AUD / T -$2.27 The move reflects both the variation in nearby CBOT wheat futures in overnight trade and any change that may have occurred in the exchange rate between the USD & the AUD.
