Mung Bean Bid is Based Of No1 Processing Grade Clean Seed Basis

Afternoon Comments

Another quiet day on the local front, old crop wheat is up $1 to $4 and the new crop multi-grade contract is up $4, old crop sorghum is steady with track bids up $1. New crop sorghum bids are back up to $248 on the rail with offers at $250 failing to trade. ASX milling wheat has seen 4kt trade off the board while the bid and offer lies at $266.50 / $270.50, once again below the best grower bid. Currency is still sitting under 1.06. New crop mung beans are back $50 in the mid grades, a casualty of the dollar but looking at the area allocated to cotton this summer the mung bean price will need to move the other way or we'll see very few acres get planted. Old crop sorghum is flat at around $195 to $200 ex farm Liverpool Plains with a small parcel trading at $195 this afternoon for up to 14% moisture. Demand into Tamworth is non-existent at present and many of the larger Newcastle mills continue to use feed wheat at values less than current sorghum offers.
